selves, "not by the taxpayer", Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley has said.

Spearheading a noisy and packed Commons debate on funding from the public purse of trade union officials, he claimed the taxpayer was "directly funding those organising strikes and chaos and also indirectly funding the Labour Party".

He said: "The general public could be forgiven for thinking that the funding of trade unions in this country was a relatively simple affair whereby employees who wish to join a union pay their subs and receive the benefits of their membership. Then out of those subs, the unions fund their activities, their offices and their costs, including the cost of the salaries of those full-time officials who spend all day on union activity rather than working on their normal job. Not so.

"Over the 13 years of the last Labour Government — a Labour Government funded to the tune of £10m a year by the unions — an insipid, backhanded and frankly dodgy system emerged which ensures that millions of pounds a year of taxpayers' money is now being used to fund union activity.

Councillor Bevan Craddock is calling for more time and said the site should be used to create jobs. He said: "We need more time, it is so important it is in the best interest of the community.

"What we really need are jobs. That's a big employment site and it should be kept that way."

Councillor Craddock said the development could also have a knock on effect on the existing businesses in the village.

He said: "It will kill the centre of the village and create a satellite community."

Listing their objections to the district council, the parish council said: "We believe this type of major development is not appropriate for our community and would be extremely detrimental to the existing village centre and the current shops and businesses. "There will also be serious traffic and transport problems which will cause major problems for our community as a whole. "As part of the site is in the flood plain, there are obvious environmental and flood issues that could be serious for a large part of the centre of our village. "The loss of currently designated employment land is of major concern in view of the Government's clear statement that creating jobs is the number one."

Nuisance antics see a drop of 43 per cent

ANTI-SOCIAL behaviour in Cannock and Rugeley has dropped by almost a half in a year, latest figures reveal.

However, one area of Rugeley continues to buck the positive trend with domestic violence reports up 78 per cent.

The latest report from Cannock Chase Community Safety Partnership shows incidents down by 43 per cent in Cannock and 46 per cent in Rugeley over 12 months.

Total recorded crime in Cannock Chase district was down 4.4 per cent from 6,805 crimes in 2009/2010 to 6,508 crimes in 20010/2011.

The total number of anti-social behaviour incidents is down 24.1 per cent from 4,729 to 3,590.

Violent crimes causing less serious injuries have been cut by 47 per cent over the same period in Rugeley town centre.

However the Western Springs and Springfields area of Rugeley continues to buck the positive trend, with domestic violence reports up 78 per cent on the year and total crime up 45 per cent in the last four years.

Impact

Cannock Chase District Council leader Councillor George Adamson said he was pleased with the overall "Results across the district are

"We do face many challenges in the district, with many offenders coming from areas which fall within the top 20 per cent most deprived areas in Britain.

"In addition, offenders often come from a background of drug misuse or have accommodation problems."

Management in Lomas buy-out

A REMOVAL company based in Cannock is back in local hands after its management staged a buy-out. John Lomas Removals has been a recognised name in the Midlands for more than 20 years, but was taken over by Edinburgh based Clockwork Holdings Group in 2007. Rob Horrobin, branch manager at the firm's Cannock office at the time, led the management buyout and is looking to expand the company. He said: "As a management team we are excited about the growth prospects for the business. "John Lomas Removals already has a strong presence within the Midlands. We have ambitious plans to grow the business."

Now the managing director, Mr Horrobin has been at the company for 13 years, starting off as a removals operative and climbing the ranks into management and helping the company to become independent once again.

The women are already making plans for fundraising activities next year, and hold regular raffles and coffee year, and notor regular ramies and conies mornings to keep raising money, while other members of the group are taking part in a Firewalk on Friday (November 4) at Cannock Hockey Club.

The calendars cost £4.50 and are available from Pat, who can be contacted on 01543 423750, and also from Aiden Burley MP.

It's Britain, Jim, but not as we knew it . . .

I HAVE done jury service twice and a given just deci-sions by law, so why do we not get the same from our governments?

In 1998, Tony Blair signed us all into the EU Localisation Bill, David Cameron calls it the Big Society.

But do readers realise what this means? Scotland, Ireland, Wales and England become EU regions forever. Localisation is a move too far in respect of laws and customs in the realm of our sovereign kings and queens and destroys our freedoms from more than 1,000 years.

Future petitions will no longer be considered by our Government but the EU, and our Government will become nothing more than a parish council in the eyes of Europe.

Our Queen believes the Marra Cantal war.

become nothing more than a parish contains the of Europe.

Our Queen believes the Magna Carta is still law which states: "No monies to be given to European countries", so why does our Government give the EU £150bn every year in membership and taxes to implement its laws which lo and behold, is the same amount we owe the International Monetary Fund in yearly loans?

Norway and Switzerland are the richest countries in Europe and not part of the EU. Now is the time for every man, woman and child to write to their MPs and demand a referendum vote on our membership of the EU. If twe don't, history will state: "It's Britain Jim but not as we knew it."

Plea over shoeboxes

THIS year St Anne's Church will be supporting the Christians Shoebox Appeal organised by the Christian charity International Aid Trust. This is our opportunity to share our Christian love with those less fortunate than ourselves. St Anne's is a collecting point for shoeboxes and people are asked to bring them to St Anne's Church on Sunday, November 6 at the 10.15am service. If you cannot come to St Anne's on November 6 with your shoebox, contact Brian or Sue Golding through the parish office on 01543 686111 to arrange collection. Thank you for your support.

Government has lessons to learn

DO YOU remember the days when the cry was 'education, edu-ation, education'? Those days of giving priority to training and education are long gone, sadly. The Independent Institute of Fiscal studies has just published a report which shows that public spending on education is falling at the fastest rate since the 1950s.

The report says spending on education will fall in real terms between 2010/11 and 2014/15.

In England, the deepest cuts are in school buildings, higher education, 16-19 provision and early

Hoard trip is really a bonus

LETTERS

I REFER to Colin Woodward's letter—not impressed by hoard move. All of the items sent to America will return, they are merely on loan for display at the headquarters of the National Geographic Society in Wash-ington, DC and are giving our Ameriington, DC and are giving our Ameri-can friends a great insight into our history. In fact, the November issue of that society's magazine contains an excellent article on the Hoard. The financial benefits to this area – by encouraging visiting American tourists to get outside London and see the real England – could be considerable.

As for 'Birmingham getting its fingers on these prized pieces', well, let us not forget that when the Hoard was put up for auction (as legally it had to be), it was the museums at Birmingham and Stoke-on-Trent that secured it.

Birmingham and Stoke-on-Trent that secured it.

So they have custody of it and each of those museums have permanent displays of Hoard items which I believe are exchanged, and each will loan items out for temporary displays elsewhere (my wife and I were privileged to see some items on display at Lichfield Cathedral earlier this year). This find is one of international parts.

This find is one of international, not merely local or national – significance, so let us not be parochial about it.

If we must be, let us merely be thankful that it remained in this country at all, and when it did, that it did not go to one of the major museums in London.

Mopping Up Your Windows In The Morning

Cloudy2Clear Windows, the Wolverhampton based window repair company, has added a new product range to eliminate a problem that always appears at this time of year - condensation on the inside of your windows. The company which specialises in saving householders a fortune by repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has added a new string to their bow with their new Anti-Condensation glass.

Managing Director Brian Stanley, explains why windows seem to attract moisture in the autumn and winter, 'During the spring and summer many people have moisture in their houses but they just don't realise it. When the temperature outside starts to fall at night then so does the temperature of the glass in your double glazing. Once the glass is colder than the walls then water vapour condenses on it which is why you get windows which can be sopping wet in the morning. This can have a very damaging effect on frames, window sills and floors. I've seen people having to literally mop up pools of water every

So how does the new glass help? 'With our new anti-condensation glass the glass absorbs the heat in the house and keeps the glass at the same temperature as the walls. This means that the water vapour doesn't get a chance to collect on the glass. keeping it completely free from any condensation whatsoever. The difference is quite amazing. And as we're only replacing the glass the cost is absolutely minimal.

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged or suffering from condensation then give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be more than happy to help!

In the 1940s, Drabble turned to writing about country matters, his first article, on Staffordshire Bull Terriers, being published in The Field, for which he wrote regularly for more than 40 years.

In 1947 he was invited to appear on BBC radio, talking about bull rings of the Black Country. After contributing to various programmes, he eventually took over Country Lover, later known as In The Country and headmen a semilar on An Questions. He took over Country Lover, later known as in The Country, and became a regular on Any Questions. He also wrote scenes for Tom Forrest in The Archers. In 1949, Prabble returned briefly to Bloxwich to help mark the revival of Bloxwich Carnival which had not taken place since 1932. He wrote a page of greet-ings entitled The Day Before Yesterday, recalling the independence of Bloxwich, which must have gone down well

Assistant

Drabble first appeared on TV in 1957 in an item about his pet badger on a children's programme. He went on to feature in Badger Watch and Animal Magic.

Then in 1961 he became a full-time writer, and he and his wife purchased Goat Lodge, a derelict gatehouse of the former Bagot Park estate north of Abbots Bromley, Staffordshire. They also bought 90 acres of neglected ancient woodland, a remnant of the Needwood Forest, which over the years they turned into Goat Lodge Nature Reserve.

Goat Lodge Nature Reserve.

After fending off developers and battling with Center Parcs, which wanted to build a holiday village just outside its borders in 1988, the reserve became a recognised Site of Special Scientific Interest. From 1964, Drabble wrote regularly for the Birmingham Evening Mail, but was sacked in 1990 when the editor informed him that, according to research, the countryside held little interest for the readership. The Express & Star, sister paper to the Walsall Chronicle, felt differently, taking him on as a columnist for several years thereafter.

Drabble became known nationally as presenter of BBC TV's One Man and His Dog, commentating on sheepdog trials from 1976-1993. At its peak, the programme had more than eight million viewers, and even the Queen asked Drabble for advice. Midlander of the Year in 1992, and awarded an OBE in 1993, Drabble retired from the show, saying it had become "a bit boring watching dogs chase stroppy sheep round a field".

Phil Drabble died at Goat Lodge on July 29, 2007, his wife having passed away 18 months earlier. Having no children, he left most of his estate, including the house and reserve, to his personal assistant of 25 years, Ruth Froggatt, whose parents had been close friends of the Drabbles from when she was young. It is believed he thought of her as the daughter he never Drabble travelled abroad only once or twice, being proud to have never lived more than 20 miles from his birthplace. A pub in Turnberry Road, Bloxwich, built in the 1990s, is named One Man and His Dog in his honour. It seems a fitting tribute.

Supermarket boost for community groups

CHARITIES and community organisations in desperate need of support in and around Cannock are being offered a lifeline by a local business. The new Asda store in Lichfield Road has announced plans to give out funding to those in need and bosses at the supermarket want to hear from local groups.

The store, which opened in August, will be awarding donations from the Asda Foundation — the supermarket chain's charitable organisation which provides financial assistance to local projects.

Each Asda store is allowed to make donations worth £1,000 but this can be increased for particularly deserving causes.

Bosses at the Cannock supermarket will be reviewing applications sent in to the store before deciding which local charities and projects will receive a boost.

Store manager, Simon Wallbank said: "As part of our commitment to supporting the communities in which we operate, we're keen to help worthwhile causes in the local area.

"We want to hear from organisations and individuals who can demonstrate how they are helping locally and why they need our help.

Mr Pat Sullivan, prosecuting, who played scenes from the videotape to Stafford Crown Court, said: "That's why he was doing it – to show off to his friends. "Then he panics when he sees the damage and drives out of the car park without reporting the collision."

Whittaker, aged 19, of Belt Road, Hednesford, admitted charges of dangerous driving and failing to stop after an accident. He was ordered to do 150 hours unpaid community work, banned from driving for two years and told he must take an extended driving test. He was fined £250 with £340 court costs.

Judge Mark Eades told him: "Why a responsible adult feels the need to show off for an extended period of time by driving your car around in circles with you hanging out of the window, I can't imagine.

"You clearly didn't have control of the car-eventually there would be an accident and that is exactly what happened and two people have suffered damage to their cars through no fault of their own."

Mr Sullivan said Whittaker's registration number could not be seen but the security guard who owned the Lexus made his own inquiries and informed the police. The defendant made immediate admissions when he was seen by officers on June 6, a week after the offences had taken place on July 30.

Mr David McQueen, defending, said: "It was a matter of foolishly showing off to his friends and things got out of control.

"His vehicle was fully insured and the injured parties have had full resolution of their claims."

Other companies which have recruited include banking giant HSBC who took on four people, local firm Chase Tyres who took on three new people, and the Newlife Foundation who have taken on two.

Mr Burley said: "To see that more than 35 jobs have been created to date as a direct result of the fairs is very pleasing indeed and I know that some employers, such as Tesco, are still going through applications and conducting interviews. "However, I am also aware that any recovery we are seeing here is very fragile and we must not rest on our laurels. "There is much still to be done and it is vital that we do everything to boost confidence in the economy and in Cannock Chase in particular."

Mr Burley said there were around 2,300 jobseekers in Cannock Chase, around six per cent of the population.

Visit included short river trip

ON October 6, the ladies enjoyed what has now become their annual fish and chip supper. It was all very well organised with the ladies providing their own drinks, condiments and cutlery and the local chip shop delivering the piping hot food.

Dilys had organised a quiz to round off the evening. Everyone answered individually and the winner was presented with a bouquet of flowers. Well done Maureen McCormack.

Dilys said she had received a letter of thanks from St Giles Hospice for the money raised at our auction in September.

On Saturday, October 15, the ladies enjoyed a day out in Tewkesbury and Upton-on-Severn. The weather was lovely for the time of year and the group was able to meander along the streets of the two lovely old towns. In Tewkesbury it was warm enough to enjoy a short river trip and to have a look at the outdoor market. The Abbey was also well worth a visit.

In Upton-on-Severn there is a curious but fascinating Tudor House Museum. Admission is only £1 for seniors and there are three floors packed with memorabilia. On the return journey, they were given a tour of the splendid Malvern Hills.

Speaker on Thursday, October 20, was Peter Johnson whose tales and pictures of his travels to distant shores have been

He spoke about Mahe and its capital, Victoria and the colourful markets where there is a huge variety of colourful fruit and vegetables and where Cattle Egrets hop around the remains of the fish. There is a Marine National Park where it is possible to snorkel, but there is a charge and police regularly check that people have paid.

In Praslin, famous for coco de mer, the world's heaviest cocoa seed, Peter enjoyed beautiful sunsets, there were zebra doves and a Seychelles sun bird built a nest in a nearby tree. It was possible to get around the island on the local bus.

Peter also visited La Digue, a nomotorised island where the modes of transport are bicycles and ox carts. Peter's slides really brought the Seychelles to life and he can be contacted on 01543 270509.

Jan Scott won the raffle.

At today's meeting (November 3), there will be a great Christmas shopping opportunity as there will be stalls selling stationery and cards, jewellery, make-up and scarves, creative gifts and lingerie.

Chocks away for pilot Will, 16

A 16-YEAR-OLD from Lichfield has taken his first solo helicopter flight on his way to becoming the youngest person in the UK to get his pilot's licence.

Will Tyler flew unaccompanied at the first possible opportunity—on his 16th birthday last Thursday. He cannot get a full licence until he is 17. It is believed that he is the youngest person ever to fly solo.

His father Dave Tyler, a self-employed builder from Longdon Green, said: 'We got him a helicopter flight for his 14th birthday, and he took to it straight away.

"We're very proud of what he's achieved."

The Bloxwich-born father-of-three said the whole family chipped in for lessons—at £100 for 20 minutes—for Christmas and birthdays. Will, a pupil at The Friary School, Lichfield, also works with his father during school holidays, earning money himself to put towards tuition fees.

Laura Marling Birmingham Cathedral

THERE is something ethereal almost spiritual about petite folk singer Laura Marling, so it's appropriate her "Ring the Bells Tour" was played in cathedrals up and down the country, ending in Birmingham.

However, Birmingham Cathedral is arguably the worst place to hold such a concert, certainly for the third of her fans who were consigned to the balconies which had the most uncomfortable pews and restricted views.

In fact, if you were not in the front row of the balconies and you sat down, you couldn't see the performance at all.

Also they have had the whole tour to deal with the problems of setting up sound in buildings the problems of setting up sound in buildings which were not designed to stage such events. However, the sound crew in Birmingham seem to have overlooked the fact people up in the bal-conies needed to hear the singer.

Power

The first two songs were almost inaudible due to poor sound engineering which was annoying considering the audience had to wait around 40 minutes between the support act and Marling appearing on stage, while the crew tested and tweaked the sound system.

tweaked the sound system.

This detracted from the performance of Marling who is a fantastic musician and singer and is a cross between the high-noted clarity of Joni Mitchell and the power and emotion of Eva Cassidy.

She was on stage for just over an hour and performed such haunting songs as Goodbye England, Night Terror, New Song and Night after Night.

Figiant, Night lerror, New Sorig and Night after Night.

Rather arrogantly, she made it clear at the penultimate song, Rambling Man, there was only going to be All My Rage, as her encore. Marling is an amazing talent but it would be no surprise if some of the people who had paid more than £20 per ticket, none of which men-tioned the restricted or – in some cases – com-pletely blocked view, felt a little let down.

Femme Fatale certainly put on a spec-tacular show. A 90-minute aerobic worktacular show. A 90-minute aerobic workout in a succession of skimpy bikini-like outfits, she danced practically non-stop.

Sometimes the 29-year-old American's moves looked puppet-like compared with her troupe of acrobatic dancers. The lack of a single wheeze or pant suggested lip-syncing during the most energetic numbers. However, it is hard to tell with Britney's brilliant brand of high-concept artificial dance-pop in which vocal effects, gimmicks and grooves are equally important (maybe more important) than melody.

Delta forces big breakthrough bid by Chrysler

Astra have dominated the British family car market for years: Hatchbacks which have grown bigger and more sophisticated with each redesign.

That's a tough section of the market to crack, but now Chrysler – best known here for its iconic Jeep brand and the big Voyager MPV – is hoping to make inroads into the big boys' market share.

Clearly to do that it needs something different and the Clearly to do that it needs something different and the new Delta is just that—a sleek and sporty shape which conceals an interior with limousine-like levels of space. It's competitively priced, from £16,695, and is packed with luxury features, the latest technology and modern, proven engines courtesy of its links with Fiat, which owns a controlling share of the American car maker. The link with Fiat is vital for Chrysler to crack the European and particularly the British market, as its previous attempts have been seen as somewhat half-hearted with offerings such as the Neon with list fairly crude two-litre engine and three-speed automatic gearbox. The Delta (already sold under the Lancia badge in mainland Europe) is not only reasonably priced but should be relatively economical to run, with a choice of two petrol and two diesel engines with punchy performance and fuel economy averaging from 44.8 to 61.4mg.

ance and fuel economy averaging ...
61.4mpg.
The car's distinctive looks, though, will be the first thing to attract potential buyers into the showrooms. Its sleek, extended wedge shape gives it a very sporting appearance.

Inside it's possibly the roomiest car in its class – with the sliding rear seats at their rear-most position passengers get an incredible four feet of leg room. While the Delta looks low, the car's high waistline is deceptive and headroom will be ample for virtually any occupant. The rear seats also recline so the kids (or indeed granny and granddad) can relax in comfort. With the seats in their normal position you have an average 380 litres of boot space – or fold them flat and you have a full-size estate's loading bay at your disposal. The interior conveys a premium car impression, with quality materials for seats and trim and plenty of chrome touches for a light, bright feel. The instruments are handily-placed and easy to see and use. The Delta has daytime LED running lights like those seen on Audis, and a distinctive rear end with its vertical, curved lighting cluster.

Powered

I drove the version powered by the 1.6 litre diesel multijet engine, which proved both smooth and lively with 120bhp on tap which will take you from a standstill to 62mph in 10.7 seconds. It's quiet, too, with Chrysler's new soundproofing measures a necessity for its premium car pretensions.
Fuel consumption is a very respectable 61.4mpg (combined) for a car of this size and performance.
The petrol alternatives are both turbocharged 1.4s, with outputs of 120 or 140bhp and 0-62mph sprint times of 9.2 and 9.8 seconds respectively. The more powerful engine is actually more economical, too – 49.6mpg compared to 44.8.

area. Navigation versions use a new system to help the driver to manage audio and phone functions – for example "reading" text messages to you over the car's speakers. There are also remote controls on the steering wheel, and the option of using voice commands. Breaking into this section of the British market isn't going to be easy, but the Delta's space, ambience and features could well bring new devotees to the brand.

Perfect as your second vehicle

By Cathy Stanworth

THE latest green motoring craze to hit London is available in the West Midlands thanks to a Shropshire engineer.

Colin Roberts, of Hi Tech Supplies of Telford, sells the two-seater electric road-legal quadricycles from Colin Hoberts, of Hi letor Supplies of Telifors, selis the two-seater electric road-legal quadricycles from his lock-up.

He buys Gazelle petrol ATV buggies from China, and spends two to three weeks converting them to electric. Electric quadricycles have proved popular in London because of the huge savings on petrol. They are exempt from road tax and the congestion charge, and get free parking, although they still need to be insured. As the average commuting speed in London is 10mph, electric buggies are the perfect solution for getting to and from work.

With a maximum speed of 40mph, the Gazelle is ideal as a second car to zip round town or for the school run. They can have a towbar fitted, off-road tyres are available and they have storage space on the back.

A Government scheme is being introduced to provide electric charging points across the country. Cities involved include London, Manchester and Birmingham.

Riding in one of the buggies, it was obvious that its 10kw BLDC motor (equivalent to a 300cc petrol engine) had enough zip to quickly pull out of junctions and motor happily up sloping roads. Disc brakes and independent suspension, with rear-mounted drive, mean it handles most terrains.

Quieter

Tate socket into your use batteries can run off 75 box and an RCD breaker. Colin's buggies, which believes are the cheapest on the market, weigh about 560kg. He believes are the cheapest on the market, weigh about 560kg. He believes electric transport is still in its infancy. "Until the price of oil goes through the roof people will only consider it when they know they are going to save a lot of money. "The main purpose of it is as a second vehicle, You need one vehicle to go on holiday or get to Manchester for example. The second one is usually used for shopping, getting to work locally or picking up the kids from school. So you've got one car wasted on the drive."

While the Gazelle is all about saving money, it's got impressive kit. Its brushless three-phase DC motor is over 90 per cent efficient. It has a battery pack and contactor supplying current to a controller, all the latest technology from China.

"It costs 50p to charge if completely flat," said Colin. Charging takes six or seven hours. An amp meter on the charging takes six or seven hours. An amp meter on the gauge. "The amps go from 50 to 100," said Colin. "If you travel at 30mph you'll go further than if you were travelling at 40mph."

The Government intends eventually to electrify the whole

In a Government intends eventually to electrify the whole of the country, so we could all end up with an electric vehicle on the drive. But which should we choose now?

Colin said the Gazelle was competitive with the Renault Twizy because, although they sell for £6,690, customers must lease the batteries for a minimum of three years at £40 a month. *On top of that it doesn't include the doors (£455) or alloy wheels (£350). You couldn't take it off the road. It has thurtitly they have the they they have and cities.

or alloy wheels (£350). You couldn't take it off the road. It has tiny little wheels. It's just suitable for towns and cities.

"The Gem is available from £10,150 with a top speed of 28mph. It is being sold to golf courses and resorts. I believe they're way over-priced."

Compared to a full sized electric car, such as a £25,000 Nissan Leaf, Colin said: "The full size electric vehicle depreciates so much that they're not viable as an alternative to a petrol car. Also the battery replacement cost is very high."

The Gazelle is available in blue, orange, red or yellow, and takes between one and three months to deliver, depending on colour choice. Go to www.gazelleatvbuggy.co.uk

Lexus hybrid means a cut in driving costs

The Lexus CT 200h - packed with stylish designs

The Lexus CT 200h – packed with stylish designs
LEXUS has added some extra visual muscle, introduced more top-flight equipment features and sharpened up the handling of its CT 200h full hybrid premium compact model to create the CT 200h F-Sport.

While the new model's looks are bolder and more attention grabbing, there is no penalty to pay in the combined low emissions, fuel efficiency and low cost of ownership performance that make CT 200h an unmatched proposition in one of the car market's most competitive segments.

On the outside the CT 200h F-Sport makes its presence known with 17-inch dark-finish alloys, a larger rear spoiler, flared side skirts, a mesh front grille and new aero-styled bumpers front and rear. In the cabin the distinguishing features include an F-Sport steering wheel with a flat bottom section and aluminium pedals and scuff plates.

Adding to the specification of the SE-L grade, the F-Sport gains cruise control, F-Sport leather upholstery, heated front seats, electric driver's seat adjustment, auto-dimming (electrochromatic) electrically retractable door mirrors and a rear parking camera that links to a display in the rear-view mirror.

And if that isn't enough, owners can ramp up the specification with the option of an advanced HDD navigation system combined with Lexus's Remote Touch control, an auto-dimming rear-view mirror, back guide monitor and 10-speaker audio package. Front and rear parking sensors and a sunroof are also available.

Lexus has tuned the CT 200h F-Sport's suspension for a more engaging drive, and fitted its lateral damping system as standard. Coll spring rates have been changed and the stan-lateral dampers help minimise body vibrations, leading to a more linear steering feel and rewarding driving experience, as well as greater comfort for everyone on board. Headline performance from the new F-Sport matches its CT 200h sister models with a zero-road-tax 94g/km CO2 emissions and 68.9mgp official combined cycle fuel consumption. And, as the only full hybrid in its class, it can run for up to a mile in slow moving traffic on its electric power alone. The new Lexus CT 200h F-Sport is available to order now, with first UK deliveries in January. On the road prices are from £27,850.

Turbo treatment for the new BMW

BMW's EfficientDynamics technology will reduce emissions in eight of the 3 Series models

THE next-generation 3 Series saloon has been unveiled by BMW. It's loosely the same shape as the old one, but with tweaked styling especially around the front and rear light clusters.

clusters. Although the new car is bigger than the model it replaces, the biggest changes come under the skin, where a forthcoming expansion of BMW's EfficientDynamics technology will see as many as eight 3 Series models dipping below 120g/km by March 2012, when more engines are added to the four that have already been announced. Every engine will be turbocharged for the first time. The two petrol models are the four-cylinder 328i developing 242bhp, and the six-cylinder 335i, which pushes out 302bhp. The available diesels at launch are the standard 320d, a 181bhp 2.0-litre unit that emits 120g/km of CO2, and the 320d EfficientDynamics, which costs the same but has less

The available closes at altarior are the standard 2500, and the 320d EfficientDynamics, which costs the same but has less power, taller gearing and a CO2 output that has been squeezed down to 109g/km.

Six trim levels will be offered, which is more than ever before and reflects BMW's perception that buyers want more personalisation possibilities these days. ES and SE can be ordered straight away, with M Sport coming out next year. New versions called Sport, Modern and Luxury will also come later. The car is 93mm longer than the 2011 model, but 6mm narrower excluding the mirrors. Its wheelbase is 50mm longer too. It's pushing the boundaries of what can be called a 'compact' luxury saloon, and rear legroom has increased by only 15mm.

When all the new models are available next March, prices will kick off from a figure of £24,880 on the road for the 316d ES. But for now the cheapest option, the 320d duo, starts at £28,080.

MARKET DRAYTON 1STS 12 RUGELEY 1STS 10
RUGELEY came back from Shropshire defeated after a last kick of the game gave Market Drayton a win they did not deserve. A variety of circumstances meant captain Matthew Williscorft only had five of his original line up to pick from. He decided to go with youth and eight of the starting line-up had started their rugby in Rugeley's junior section.

Market Drayton were unbeaten at home this season and have recruited more than eight Fijians from the local army camp.

Rugeley started the stronger, rucking and mauling their way down to the Market Drayton five-metre line until they were turned over. Market Drayton then began to attack from all areas of the pitch. However, Rugeley's young defenders, in particular Nathan Homer and Luke Paggett, constantly knocked the attackers to the ground with aggressive tackling.

Market Drayton tried to pick up and drive from the rucks but this played into Rugeley game. Bobby Hastings and Liam Morrison would not let anything past them in the tight.

Gains

Gains
Rugeley used their own heavy hitters to gain field position with Giuseppe Sirianni and Kirk Jones taking ball and making gains. Thomas Wilson was immense at the breakdown turning over and stripping many Market Drayton attacks. A quickly turned over ball was passed out to scrum half Ceiron Griffin, who fed Andrew Morecock. He kicked through and he managed to knock it past the full-back and score in the corner. Rugeley were unluckly not to score again when a long kick from Wilson bounced the wrong side of the dead hall line as Daniel Leone chased

Drayton quickly gained good field position in the second half and attacked the Rugeley line. Rugeley held them up with bone shaking tackles from Christopher Dynda and Jacob Graham. Eventually Drayton got the ball over the line the second row, the opponents faltered and Rugeley got a penalty.

It was then Rugeley's turn to put the pressure on. Strong running from Matthew Williscroft kept Drayton pinned back and the penalties began to flow. De Ridder had to leave the field early and was replaced by Steve Salter. Rugeley won a penalty on the five-metre line and Williscroft quickly took it and scored a try to take it to 10-0. Morecock was unable to convert.

The try seemed to re-invigorate Drayton, who marched back down the pitch and were able to score in the corner. Rugeley just had to hold out for three minutes but were unable to do so a try in the corner left a difficult kick to win the match. Unfortunately for Rugeley it was kicked and an epic potential victory turned into defeat.

ESSINGTON 2NDS 7 RUGELEY 2NDS 18

Rugeley 2nds travelled the short distance across Cannock Chase to Essington and continued their winning run in what became a clossfought game. Both sides were well matched but Rugeley had the stronger pack and therefore was able to dominate the game with great success. Rugeley started the score sheet with a penalty 10 metres from the oppositions try line and Scott Read found it an easy task to convert, as he did throughout the game.

The home team continued to push the Rugeley line but found it almost impossible to penetrate, with the first of two tries by Michael Wilkes and one from Scott Read Rugeley came back across the chase the victor's. Rugeley's captain's man of the match was Wilkes.

MARINE 2 CHASETOWN 3

KINGSLEY JAMES inspired a superb second-half fightback for Chasetown as they came from two goals down to win 3-2 at Marine in the Evo-Stik Premier League.

James was hugely impressive with two wonderful goals and substitute Linden Dovey netted his maiden Scholars goal after the Mariners had shown the way for the first hour.

The afternoon began fairly quietly and the first clear chance did not come until the 17th minute when Aaron Rey fired over the bar for the hosts following a Thomas Moore cross.

Chasetown's first opportunity came three minutes later when Levi Reid played the ball back to James but he fired over.

James then fired inches wide on 32 minutes before Stephen Johnson had a great chance to put the home side in front, taking advantage of a slip by Mark Branch, but his shot went wide. Scholars skipper Richard Teesdale headed goalwards from a corner but Ian Lathan headed off the line.

On the hour mark Marine doubled their lead when the referee adjudged Chris Slater to have pulled down Lathan and Moore sent Ryan Price the wrong way from the spot.

Seven minutes later Chasetown's fightback began when James unleashed a 30-yard screamer which flew into the top corner of the net to open the scoring for the Scholars.

On 73 minutes the Port Vale loanee made it two when his right-foot shot found the far corner of the net. With four minutes to go Jack Farmer played the ball to Danny Smith, who drew two defenders before feeding Dovey and his shot went under keeper Ryan McMahon's to complete a stunning turnaround.

But the celebrations were cooled slightly when Stride was sent off for a second booking in the last minute.

It took Chasetown just six minutes to hit the front when first team debutant Lee Wright found space in front of goal and poked the ball beyond Wanderers keeper Andrew Aston and the Scholars were on their way.

The West Midlands Regional League side tried hard to resist with attacking midfielder Nathan Dodd looking strong, but Jack Farmer countered his efforts down the left every time.

Theo Robinson headed wide at the far post from a Danny Smith cross on 24 minutes, Smith then going close three minutes later after latching onto a clearance from Ryan Price but Aston was able to gather. David Bridgewater's free kick flew narrowly over the bar as the Scholars continued to push hard.

Two minutes after the break Chasetown's lead was doubled when Smith rounded Aston on the edge of the area to tap home.

HEDNESFORD TOWN 6 WALSALL 5

IN a game that will live long in the memory of the 407 who attended at Keys Park, Hednesford Town recovered from 4-2 down with five minutes remaining in normal time to level the scores at 4-4.

They then scored two goals in the final five minutes of extra time of this round two of this Birmingham Senior Cup on Tuesday to astonishingly beat their League One local rivals, inclusive of five first-team squad members, 6-5.

The Pitmen started positively as manof-the match Elliot Durrell, the smallest man on the pitch, opened the scoring with a determined header on seven minutes before a swift Walsall move was neathy finished by George Bowerman to level the finished by George Bowerman to level the scores four minutes later.

Mark Danks curled a wonderful shot into the top corner to restore Hednesford's lead on 26 minutes before the full-time fitness of The Saddlers told in the second period as two quality goals by Will Grigg and a fourth by Jamie Tank looked to have made the game safe.

Gary Hay had other ideas as he crossed for Marvin Robinson to head into an unguarded net and then, with time ticking onto 94 minutes, Hednesford goalkeeper Dan Crane hit the bar and post before Jay Denny sensationally equalised to put the tie into extra time. Aaron Williams scored for Walsalli but The Pitmen, incredibly, stretched their tired legs for one last effort, and hero Robinson bundled the ball home on 115 and 120 to win it for Hednesford.

Home debutant Ben Jevons opened the scoring for The Pitmen inside five minutes of this Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division game as he latched on to a well judged through ball to finish confidently into the far corner past David Campbell.

The away side responded positively to the goal and equalised on eight minutes when Mark Robinson tapped in from close range after Dan Crane had made a point blank save from a header by Andrew Leeson.

Hednesford did not let the goal break their stride as striker Gary Hay scuffed his shot wide after being put through by a superbly won header from Nick Wellecomme on 15 minutes and, 60 seconds later, Ben Bailey flicked on a cross by Chris Clements which landed agonising wide of the post.

Chance

As the half wore on it was Whitby who made the better chances and they will feel disap-pointed not to have scored as the home side's defence creaked and allowed both Matthew Tymon and Leeson space to head wide in the penalty area.

However, their best chance came on 42 minutes when the impressive Callum Martin capitalised on indecision down the right flank and laid the ball square for Tymon but the striker side footed wide with the goal gaping.
